On September 19, 2005, the plaintiff, a resident of South Carolina, filed a complaint pro se against Marcus Crimes. The plaintiff did not allege the citizenship of the parties. The plaintiff is a resident of Charleston, South Carolina.

On September 29, 2005, Magistrate Judge George C. Kosko filed a report and recommended that this action be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Attached to the report and recommendation was a “Notice of Right to File Objections.” Pursuant to that Notice, the plaintiff herein was provided ten days during which to file written objections to the report and recommendation and informed of the consequences resulting from a failure to do so. See 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(C). The plaintiff has not filed any objections to the magistrate judge’s report and recommendation.

Accordingly, the Court adopts Magistrate Judge Kosko’s report and recommendation and dismisses this action without prejudice and without service of process for lack of jurisdiction.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
